Music That Will Soothe Your Soul. 11 MP3 Songs POP: with Electronic Production, URBAN/R&B: R&B Pop Crossover Details: Sandro's opus shares his real life experiences such as death, love, gang violence and energetic fun. Listeners can relate a piece of his music to their own life, as well as apply to it to a beat that will persuade him or her to move in this momentary third world. Each piece of music has been created by a skilled and trained ear developed in the music industry. Since the age of 12 years old , this New Jersey native began to establish a foundation in the musical arena as he participated in many talent shows and performed in various groups. Accordingly in Boston, Sandro was honored with the opportunity to collaborate with eminent musical mentors such as Kevin Coleman and Steve Johnson. However, he was not satisfied with the product of various engineers and realized that he would need to write and produce his own music to conquer his individual sound. Kevin Coleman recognized Sandro's talent and commitment to his musical passion and encouraged him to continue his solo career. While working on his first album Sandro continued to keep in touch with Kevin. He shared these last words with Sandro prior to his death, "There is a time and place for everyone and one day your time will come. Don't ever give up." Now is his time and Sandro welcomes anyone to listen and share the music with open Soul and Minds. Quote: "ee cummings" 'A man who dreams by night in the dusty recesses of his mind wakes in the day to find that is was vanity but the dreamer of the day is a dangerous man, for he may act his dreams with open eyes, to make it possible.'
