Authentic 50's and 60's style doo-wop 15 MP3 Songs ROCK: 50's Rock, ROCK: Rockabilly Details: By 1998, doo-wop seemed all but forgotten. The sound that once drew screaming teenage fans by the thousands was now only occasionally heard on oldies radio. That's when vocalists Scotty Tecce and Mike Napodano decided it was time to bring genuine vocal harmony back into the spotlight where it belonged. Born on the street corners of Dallas, Texas and molded in the tradition of their idols, Dion the Belmonts, Scotty and Mike added the sweet voice of Jay Ragojo and the captivating falsetto of Omar Yee Foon to create the faithful sound of The Fabulous Harmonaires. Thousands have cheered as the quartet lights up the stage with their powerful harmonies in the great tradition of 50s and 60s Doo Wop, R B and Rock Roll. From appearances at the Viva Las Vegas Weekender to The Hot Rod Kustom Kar show at the world-famous Continental Club in Austin, TX, these modern Doo-Wop trendsetters have excited crowds across the country and are set to become an international phenomenon at the Screamin' Festival in Barcelona, Spain in 2005. With barn-burning rave-ups, misty-eyed tales of lost love and foot-stompin' boppers, The Fabulous Harmonaires deliver the sounds that drive crowds crazy! Features 13 original songs true to the authentic 50s and 60s style along with two cover songs honoring the group's heroes.
