The veterans of the group are Young IZ and Samo Slim. Young IZ delivers a gospel/street vibe while Samo gives you a lil' funk with a lil' politics. Moon, the lady of Felo, is an R&B singer/rapper who brings a deadly combination of provocative rhymes and sultry R&B vocals. Charli Funk is the boy genius. At age 17 he delivers swift intellectual hip-hop with a milky silky style. There is also J-Vo, the rookie of the group. What he lacks in musical experience he makes up for with potent lyrics and a blunt delivery. Brainstorm is the beat maker extraordinaire who is responsible for many head nodding injuries. J-Lee, "The Hustle" is all about making sense, common and U.S. mint. There's also Poppa C and Big Giff. Poppa C uses his voice as an instrument to deliver rhymes that chronicle southern street life and Big Giff's vocal talent can only be matched by his writing skills.
