The Colby Agency has long handled private investigations with discretion and success. Staff from the top down maintain pristine reputations and always work within the law. Until now...With a long list of clients comes an equal number of enemies. Someone wants revenge--and is determined to get it starting with Victoria Colby-Camp. The only hope of survival lies with investigator Slade Convoy and a stranger--Mia Dawson, an assistant in the D.A.'s office. With the offices in lockdown and holding hostages, the captors have one demand: kidnap D.A. Gordon and deliver him to the Colby Agency. Slade's assignment: gain the cooperation of Mia, the only one who knows how to get past Gordon's security, by any means necessary and bring in Gordon. Together Slade and Mia have no choice but to break the law in order to execute the operation. But will they be able to plead their case once justice is served? And will the operation fail when Slade learns Mia has her own agenda?
