orchestral indie rock 12 MP3 Songs POP: Quirky, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: As a trio, Bad Dream Good Breakfast, soon realized that they couldn't achieve the lush intricate sounds they desired with guitar loops and distortion alone. Using their musical education (The New England Conservatory of Music, Berklee School of Music, University of Washington, etc), they set out to expand their songs by orchestrating richer compositions for strings, electronics and vocal harmonies for a sound that the Pacific Northwest will find unique to the music scene. Paired with Nick Jones storytelling lyrics, listeners will find themselves one minute in the midst of a film noir and the next floating across an uplifting landscape.
