Wildly adventurous, commercially unviable, and insanely eclectic music without borders for preposterous dreamers and creative listeners. 13 MP3 Songs POP: Power Pop, POP: Beatles-pop Details: "A composer of formidable technique at work." -- Titus Levi, Keyboard Magazine "One of those musicians without borders, and he uses all of his influences and incorporates them beautifully--flawlessly--with great lyrics." -- Marla Bodi, KPFA-FM DJ "It's deep, man." -- Hershel Yatovitz, Guitarist of the Chris Isaak Band "My Oyster is an extraordinary creation, a work of boundless imagination. One encounters detours of meter, timbre, and style throughout... The triumph of My Oyster is that it is packed with memorable songs that pull you in as pop songs, yet allow space for this baroque impulse. " -- David Yearsley, Cornell University Music Professor Critic "I never heard an independent (CD) produced at this level... a huge jigsaw puzzle... very intricate... A person like this comes along rarely." -- Recording Artist Emily Bezar Special note... "Unlisted" CD Track #13 on this album -- "Something (For Janette)" -- is a live recording of Cullinan's marriage proposal to his wife. In song, of course. The mission was successful.
