Refreshingly honest brand of straight-up power pop/rock, eclectic in emotion and style; a fusion of influential music from 60's R&B to 80's pop/punk/rock to 90's country pop. 12 MP3 Songs POP: with Live-band Production, ROCK: 80's Rock Details: "Fun, engaging, youthful, timeless, marvelously touching... Dene Marie reveals a soul filled with beauty and longing. I really enjoyed the songwriting and solid, in-the-pocket performances. The band kicks ass and obviously enjoys itself. I'd love to see this band rock out live. They have a feel and energy that is uplifting and completely convincing. This is real rock and roll!" Roger Fisher - founding guitarist of rock group HEART With her second CD, Dene Marie is showing us her full colors. Her music is still tender, sensitive and purely volcanic, but there's a mature honesty to it now. This songstress has created her own brand of straight-up power pop/rock that is warm, plaintive, aggressive, humorous and loving all together. We are treated to a plethora of styles - Elvis Costello, Crowded House, The Cars, The Runaways, Gladys Knight and the Pips to name a few - in this new set of 12 songs. Never boring, Dene Marie is not one to disappoint. Originally from Seattle, award winning singer/songwriter/musician Dene Marie Jomei has had a life-long love for music. From classical piano lessons at the age of three to majoring in music in college, Dene Marie has traveled a winding road of self-discovery in music. After working as a creatively unsatisfied recording engineer, she finally made her move to the other side of the glass and began writing and singing her own material. Currently residing in Los Angeles, Dene Marie has built a large and loyal following with her unique brand of power pop/rock. This talented ASCAP writer and publisher is receiving radio airplay on stations across and even outside the country, licensed her music for British television, and is a popular artist on high-traffic internet music sites where her music has reached Number 1 on several charts. She's also been featured in the BUZZ section of Los Angeles Magazine.
