More fun, humorous music about artists and art as seen through the eyes of art teacher/ musician greg percy 8 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: Children's Pop, KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music Details: Another playful romp through the world of art as seen through the eyes of Art Teacher/Musician Greg Percy. His award winning "Songs in the Key of Art" collection has earned nationwide recognition. Airplay on kids programs from coast to coast and a reputation for outstanding, fun live shows have created a buzz in the art community. Art Teachers love the new life the music breathes into old lessons. Parents enjoy the music because it's as much fun for them as it is for their kids! The 5th CD in the series has fun with children not following directions in "Following Directions (or not)". It also features neat new songs about Kandinsky, Lautrec, Kahlo, and Grandma Moses. The song "Line's Got Rhythm" has a built in lesson plan as it directs kids to draw lines to different beats. "The Shape I'm In" is a fun song about basic shape names. "I'm Not So Positive" explores the idea of positive/negative space in a 70's style ballad. Visit songsinthekeyofart for more details about the music and live shows.
