R&B pop crossover, with a touch of Latin pop. 11 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: R&B Pop Crossover, LATIN: Latin Pop Details: Jayne Anastacio: The Bio Website: jayneanastacio Email: jayneanastacio@shaw.ca. Im Jayne Anastacio, a performing song writer from Vancouver, BC, Canada. I sing because I am in love with creating and sharing my gifts. Performing compels me to BE in the moment my favourite place to be! Superwoman is Jaynes latest album. The songs in this pop album reflects Jaynes personal life, and her influences. Musically she grew up listening to her mom and dads music: Connie Francis, Patsy Cline, Julie Andrews and Barbara Streisand just to name a few. In her own era, Donna Summer, Whitney Houston, Madonna, Gloria Estefan, Stevie Wonder, Tina Turner got the fire in her belly stoked. The lil one with the big voice, was a belter. Through experience with many different bands, and playing countless venues, Jaynes performance and vocal ability evolved. She expresses herself authentically with a new-found balance between bursts of bitter-sweet cries behind her voice and whispery tenderness. Adding jazz to her repertoire has helped her discover that beautiful mix in her tones. Stewart Derdeyn a music reviewer for the Province News Group describes Jaynes voice as soulful, and describes her album as a work of a professional. Here Are Some of Jaynes Accomplishments: Duets- landed a principle role as a karaoke singing contestant in this film starring Gwyneth Paltrow and Huey Lewis. It was so much fun working with my colleague and acquaintance, Michael Buble for three long days! (1999) Missin- a BMG released song I performed from the sound track of the movie LONG SHOT, a star-studded film. The movie didnt do that great box office-wise, but it was cool hearing myself singing in the background of the best part of the movie! As a singer/songwriter, I team up with public school teachers to enhance the students learning of a curriculum. (2000-currently) Sassabass Band- Horn player, Gabriel Mark
