Acoustic rock and pop highlighted by creative songwriting and uniquely original guitar riffs, reminiscent of Dave Matthews, Jack Johnson and Jason Mraz. 9 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, ROCK: Acoustic Details: Jimmy Mancus is a 27 year-old singer/songwriter from Springbrook, Pennsylvania. Picking up the acoustic guitar at a late age, Jimmy found his inspiration in the complex stylings of artists such as Dave Matthews, Jack Johnson, Jason Mraz and Crosby, Stills and Nash. Following in the footsteps of the afore mentioned artists, Jimmy attempts to bring a sense of originality and creativity to his music, choosing to write using various, alternate chord forms and unconventional rhythms, rather than opting for the usual open-chord strumming. Mancus's debut release, aptly titled, "time to shed some light on me", is a ten-track, full-length acoustic album, showcasing the singer/songwriter's unique style. Stripped-down and bare-boned, the songs on the album are presented the way they were written, unreliant on heavy production and studio magic.
