Mellow Alternative Rock with a Euro-twist. 10 MP3 Songs POP: California Pop, ROCK: Acoustic Details: BUY ALL 3 JOE NACCO CDS FOR $15 One of the most multi-talented underground artists out there. This CD is entirely self made from start to finish with absolutely no outside help. Written, recorded, performed, mixed, mastered and designed by Joe Nacco. Born in California, raised in New York, Nacco blends the British sounds of Blur and Coldplay with an overall instantly catchy pop American sound. Radio hits include "The blue law," "The haunting," "The fear," and the tender ballad "Breathe". "Into you arms" and "Breathe" are from the soundtrack for the 2004 indie-film "Used People." What the critics say: "This album ['The Bored Syndrome'] is excellent. Every song, tracks one through ten, is excellent. Definitely, if you get a chance, pick up this album." - Andy Scullen, WEQX 102.7FM Manchester, VT "I know hits 'cause I'm a DJ and that's what I do. And 'The fear' [from 'The Bored Syndrome'] is a hit!" - Shawn Kelly, WKBE 100.3FM Glens Falls, NY "If you're looking for a fresh new artist with talent up the wazoo, you've found him. For a kid that got his humble beginning in the Capital District in Upstate NY, I am astounded by the eclectic influences he exhibits." - Meghan Reilly, Impose Magazine "He has a Beatlesque songwriting style that is all his own, combined with a distinctive voice that is instantly recognized." - Linda Fenoff, Greenville Press
