Rabble rousing rhythm folk with a world beat groove 13 MP3 Songs FOLK: Power-folk, KIDS/FAMILY: Kid Friendly Details: Joules Graves has been creating songs and performing them live all over the U.S. and Canada since 1991. Her songs have been loved by environmentalists, jam band enthusiasts and eco-feminists all over the world. People love to sing along with her moving spirituals, rousing anthems for peace and liberty, and her sexy "ooh baby songs" as well. She uses her unique rhythmic guitar, her passionate djembe drumming, and her flexible vocal acrobatics to stir up the pot. This particular project is with a band configuration called Rhythmethod which includes members of "Ancestor Radio": Marcos DeFluri on bass and Diano Garcia on percussion. The overall vibe is celebratory, and consciousness raising. Children and teenagers come to her shows and sing along with every word right along side their parents. The general feeling is joyful and fun. Highly recommended!
