Rock En Espaol,Hard Rock,Heavy Metal 12 MP3 Songs LATIN: Rock en Espanol, ROCK: Hard Rock
Details: Klave is the harmonious collaboration of: Orlando Nuez, Peter Marrero, Jimi Magnole, Joey Ojeda, Diane Harper The band came together in the summer of 2001 with a very simple and sincere goal, to create an authentic blend of hard Rock in Spanish. All the members are very accomplished musicians and have achieved significant individual success in the music business. They felt that they wanted to blend their Rock roots with the Latino heritage. By the end of 2001 the band developed a very strong set of songs. Klave attracted the attention of many in the local music scene; such as, producer-engineer, Ron Taylor, a Grammy Award winner who is based in South Florida. From that collaboration "Entre Paredes(2001)",the band's new CD was released. The album was a collection of 9 tracks that showcases the group's incredible talent emphasizing a true Rock and Roll sound. The band then started to play the top venues in South Florida, introducing thier new material to live audiences. The reception was very positive and Klave started to develop a strong following of fans. The songs were added to regular rotation on 94.9 Zeta's "En Fuego" radio program. Currently there are 5 cuts from the CD "Entre Paredes" being played on rotation at the radio show. The most requested songs are "Sin Ti", a power ball ballad and "Hijo Macho", an all out rock anthem. In October, 2003 the band competed with some of the best rock bands and won 94.9 Zeta's, "Mac Donald's, Lo Maximo De la Musica"; battle of the bands contest. On November 15 th of the same year, Klave played at Miami's James L. Knight center with several national and international Spanish rock groups like Molotov, Rabanes and El Gran Silencio. Since then, Klave has focused on playing in more diverse venues and playing to larger audiences, aspiring to increase their fan base. As of June 1, 2004, Klave is proud to announce that their video "Hijo Macho" is on rotation on MTV en Espaol. As of April 2005, Klave has the new Album Entre Paredes They are also busy filming and editing 2 new videos for the new tracks. Look for the new single and video "Corona de Espina" due out in April 2005. Klave has also undergone a few changes. We have welcomed Diane Harper as our new live drummer. Klave is very fortunate to have teamed up with such a talented musician. Diane contributes to the band, a powerful and driving sound, unique to her own style of playing. Peter Marrero has extended his talents by incorporating live keyboard/synth sounds to add a larger ambiance to what is already the unique sound of Klave. klaverocks.com myspace.com/klave klave@klaverocks.com Klave es la colaboracion musical de, Orlando Nuez, Peter Marrero, Jimi Magnole y Joey Ojeda y Diane Harper. Klave se creo durante el verano de 2001 con la simple y sincera meta de crear una autentica fusion de rock en espaol. Todos los miembros de Klave han llegado a conocer alto nivel de popularidad artistica individualmente en la industria musical, y es ahora que han decidido mezclar el rock con sus raices latinoamericanas. Al final de 2001, Klave llego a crear un repertorio de canciones que llamo la atencion de varios musicos y aficionados de la musica en el sur de la Florida, entre ellos, el productor ganador de Grammy Ron Taylor quien reside en Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. De esa colaboracion de canciones salio el CD "Entre Paredes" una coleccion de 9 canciones demostrando el talento de Klave como musicos y escritores de rock roll en Espaol. Fue entonces que Klave comenzo a tocar en varios eventos locales en el sur de la Florida atrayendo nuevas audiencias, la recepcion del publico fue positiva desde el comienzo, y sus fanaticos y audientes comenzaron a crecer rapidamente. Las canciones comenzaron en rotacion semanal en el show de radio " En Fuego" en la estacion zeta 94.9 fm, al presente hay 5 canciones en rotacion en el programa., entre las mas populares " Sin Ti" una fuerte balada de rock e "Hijo Macho" un fuerte himno de rock. En Octubre de 2003, Klave compitio en una batalla de bandas locales patrocinada por Zeta 94.9 fm y MC Donald's llamado "Lo Maximo de la Musica" ganando el concurso y en Noviembre 15, compartio la cartelera con varios grupos de rock nacionales e internacionales en el James E. Knight center en Miami con varios artistas conocidos como, El Gran Silencio, Rabanes y Molotov entre otros. Desde entonces Klave se ha enfocado en tocar varios eventos locales de alta visibilidad y varios programas de television tratando de crecer su audiencia y sus seguidores. En Junio 1, 2004 Klave orgullosamente lanzo su primer video "Hijo Macho" en MTV Espaol. En este momento Klave a terminado de grabar en el estudio 3 temas nuevos con Ron Taylor para aadirlos al CD "Entre Paredes". El nuevo sencillo "Corona de Espinas" y video se lanzara en Abril 2005.
