A deep yet colorful mix of smooth jazz chords atop stellar classical piano, flavored with existential, antifolk and metaphysical lyrics and topped with a touch of true emotion....moving; influenced by Radio Head, Ella Fitzgerald, Beethoven, The Beatles. 12 MP3 Songs POP: Piano, JAZZ: Jazz Fusion Details: And this is my life... Born underdeveloped resulting in legal blindness, Lachi grew up a bit of a social faux pas as her first generation nigerian family bounced back and forth from urban life and suburbia. Learning to play the piano before she could read or write, Lachi's been writing songs since age four and now has over 300 songs written and kept in a folder. "I do not hold myself to one genre and I find myself discovering music and composing poetry that resonates with my soul, generating a serious yet peaceful feel. Being a blind musician holds a plthora of advantages, from the abilty to see nothing but music. Lack of vision allows for an augmentation in the ability of the other senses including an increase in the ability to feel....to feel music." What will happen, will happen. What will happen,....will. What will happen? What? Which words come first? Those of love? Those of hate? Which is worse?
