"I've owned "End" for almost 2 and a half years and every time I put this CD in my player I am pleasantly surprised. It's a gem of a CD that with each new turn in the player offers the listener bits and pieces of itself that it hides on previous listens. This is a great CD to sit with in rush hour traffic or just alone in your room on a rainy day. Very versatile in its sound and not like anything you might have heard before." -fan review from Amazon.com
