"Husband and wife vocal team delivers album that is a balanced mix of rollicking and well crafted roots rock numbers reminiscent of Uncle Tupelo and Blue Mountain, country folk songs and strong lyrics that will remind you of Lucinda Williams and Emmylou H 10 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Americana, COUNTRY: Alt-Country Details: Rocket 88 was formed in the summer of 2005 and played their first show at Two Stick in Oxford, MS on June 6 of that same year. Since then, Rocket 88 has brought its Mississippi soaked roots rock sound to some of the best venues from Memphis, Tenn. to Baton Rouge, La. The band consists of members Rosamond Posey (vocals, rhythm guitar) from Vicksburg, MS; Jamison Posey (vocals, lead guitar, harmonica) from Meridian, MS; Nathan Robbins (bass) from Pontotoc, MS; Robert Chaffe (keyboards, organ) from New Orleans, LA; and Ryan Rogers (Drums) from Forest, MS. Having been described as everything from juke joint gospel, to straight ahead rock and roll, Rocket 88 is self-described as being influenced by the music of the region and town they call home. The band describes their sound as drawing from a veritable melting pot of influences that they have been exposed to since they were young such as gospel, traditional country, 70s rock, 90s alternative country and delta and hill country blues. By September 2006, Rocket 88 had played Oxford's Double Decker Arts festival, Thacker Mountain Radio Show, and Baton Rouge's Fest for All festival, despite being less than a year old. Rocket 88's first recorded song, "Highway", was selected from a field of over 50 regional and local bands to appear on the Fest for All Compilation CD Vol .4. Rocket 88s debut album, Full Circle scheduled for release March 29, 2008 was recorded at Tweed Recording, mastered at Tap Root Audio Design by Jeffery Reed and co-produced by Rocket 88 and Andrew Ratcliffe. People who are interested in Emmylou Harris Uncle Tupelo Blue Mountain should consider this download.
