Details: Ahmad Givens, Kamal Givens, and Micah Givens, are the three brothers who make up the group, Stallionaires. This trio has been producing, writing, and arranging their own music for the past 15 years! Blending a wealth of musical talent and knowledge, with lyrics that range from party anthems to politically relevant, Stallionaires have cultivated a unique new sound since the early '90s that is fresh, deep and raw. The three brothers spent their early years on an Arabian horse ranch in Northern California and latter years in the city of Los Angeles, CA. The three talented musicians combine a variety of influences and experiences to shape their own sound. The group is inspired musically and professionally by geniuses, Prince and Michael Jackson. The group was also heavily influenced by Guns N Roses, Aerosmith, Tupac Shakur, N.W.A., Jimi Hendrix, and Sade. Each member brings their own element to the group to build the Stallionaires sound. Ahmad, the oldest brother, adds the distinctive style of the group, writing skills, and is the lead spokesman. Kamal is the energy of the group. He brings a unique deliverance which influences the Stallionaires sound. Micah, the youngest brother, is the sound of the group, who produces most of their music. In a career that spans more than 14 years, the Stallionaires have worked with the following legends: Paulinho Da Costa, John Barnes, Chaka Khan, and Del Atkins. The Stallionaires have mesmerized audiences with their performances across the country and internationally. The trio has appeared in many television shows such as, The Tyra Banks Show, VH1's 1 Reality Show, I Love New York Season 1 2 as Chance (Kamal) and Real (Ahmad), MTV shows Sweet Sixteen and Sorority Life, TV1's Michael Baisden Show, and TV Guide along with various national radio shows. The Stallionaires have been featured in various print media such as: The Buffalo Challenger, Bold Beauty Magazine, and Upfront TV Magazine. The Stallionaires take time to give back to the community by participating in various charity events. In 2007, the group was sought out by New York State Senator Antoine M. Thompson and Buffalo Mayor, Byron Brown, to encourage the community of Niagara Falls and Buffalo, NY to support the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society of West New Yorks Bone Marrow Drive. Currently, The Stallionaires are working on their own show and a new album which is tentatively scheduled for a 2008 release.
