Neo-Pop a combination of rock, pop, punk, and alternative music. 12 MP3 Songs POP: Beatles-pop, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: STORM the rock band from Philadelphia, with a neo-pop /garage sound. Four new songs from STORM, 'STORM AHEAD' this EP is a prelude to our follow up CD to 'Counterclockwise'. The second full length CD will be recorded in September of 2005, but we wanted to give our fans a glimpse of our new material. 'Where You Are' the new CD will be released in December of 2005 and will be sold here on CDbaby. STORM is influenced by The Beatles' pop melodies mixed with punk's raw drive guitar sound. The band was formed in 2002 by John Mattei. Their first EP has received airplay from college radio stations across the United States and Canada. 'Counterclockwise' has received light airplay from commercial radio stations in the New York/Philadelphia area. The CD was recorded at the Legendary Sigma Sound Studios and is currently being shopped to the major record labels by a high profile attorney from New York, Jeffrey E. Jacobson, Esq., Jacobson and Colfin, P.C., the firm. STORM and it's logo are Trademarked. STORM is currently gigging in the New York/Philadelphia/New Jersey area building support with every performance. They perform regularly at original venues in the New York /Philadelphia area including CBGB's and Kenny's Castaways - both in New York, Pontiac Grille, The Grape Street Pub, Club 218 - all in Philly , increasing their following at every show. Their original sound appeals to audiences of all ages. STORM is John Mattei on drums, piano, keys, and vocals. John Romeo on lead vocals, guitar, bass, keys. STORM creates original music that is dynamic and varied, and reflect the influences of both writers.
