26 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop, HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Style Details: Born and raised on the rougher streets of Houston, Texas, Travis White was brought up into rap and hip hop at an early age. Moving to the lighter side of the suburbs, he was able to bring hip hop with him. Known to jot down pre-mature rhymes dating all the way back to 5th grade, Travis had an early start to mold himself into the emcee his is today. Not taking any of it seriously, others saw, heard, and read the talent Travis had but still didn't take it for more than a grain of salt. Fast forward a few years, and Travis is in his Sophomore year at Jersey Village Highschool, a school known to have previous lyrical titans graduate from. With skills magnified, he finally decided he'd take the rap game to heart and with the help of a friend, Westnile Records and most importantly, T-Dub was born. Within the first few months of Westnile's existence, the first mixtape (In The Beginning) was released to the local Jersey Village students. Immediately making buzz and establishing a growing fanbase, his next release was sure to turn heads. Soon there after his Junior year in JV started, he released his first solo underground, The World is Ours, which all together accumulated over a 100 copies sold straight out the backpack. Now known all over the streets of Houston, T-Dub's early fast road to success is doing anything but slowing down. You will hear from him very soon.
