Same great power pop sound as their 2 Columbia Records albums. "You've got to love these guys . . .

Dynamic musical arrangements, fabulous harmonies, and great songs seem to be the Dogs' forte, and they use all three very wisely." - AllMusic Guide 18 MP3 Songs POP: Power Pop, POP: New Wave Details: The Laughing Dogs first surfaced in the CBGBs Punk/New Wave scene. This energetic group has two albums on Columbia Records, songs on Atlantic Records' "Live at CBGB's" CD, and many indie CDs. Hidden Bones is a collection of songs that didn't make it onto the two Columbia albums, but that deliver with all the creativity, humor, and exuberant power pop sound the Laughing Dogs are known for. "

Guide "THE LAUGHING DOGS . . . Their sound is made of fresh, exciting tunes and great vocal harmonies with a touch of humor that assures a good time for all." - MONDAY MORNING POWER PLAY

"Take Revolver-era Beatles, Steely Dan, and the Rascals, put 'em in a blender---and do NOT skimp on the garlic and onions. Sharp, smart songwriting and at least three killer vocalists." - Mike Fornatale "The Dogs (as they're affectionately known) ended the Live at CBGB's LP with their killer "I Need A Million."

Along with the Tuff Darts, Mink DeVille and the Shirts, the Dogs made that record the most successful of the New York compilations." - The Aquarian "POP TOP - It is a rare occurrence to confront a group that seems to genuinely enjoy playing night after night; New York City's Laughing Dogs are such a group . . .

They are tight, fun and sincere." - B.H. THE HARTFORD COURANT - "enough raw energy, good tunes and innovation to please the most jaded listener - and enough infectious humor for half a dozen albums . .

. . Best of all the Dogs have real talent . . ." - Henry McNulty More Laughing Dogs music: "The Long Lost
