Original and unique, a cappella, one-woman orchestra on multi tracks, insightful lyrics and various use of arrangements from World-Beat to Jazz to New Age 18 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Jazz Vocals, WORLD: World Beat Details: Ute is a songwriter, producer, recording and performing a cappella artist. She created her own style of music with a uniqueness that comes through in each song. Her multi-colored voice weaves the songs together with lush harmonies and rhythmic vocal backgrounds, making them come alive and touch the heart of her listeners. On her recordings, she uses multi-tracks to create a rich and engaging sound using only her own voice, and performs with a looping device to multiply her voice during her stage-performances. Ute began writing songs in 2002 and has written over 50 songs since then. Her debut CD: On My Own came out in 2004. The second CD: Heartaches and Other Pleasures was released in September of 2005, and includes songs about falling in love, disappointment, anger, sadness, letting go, being at peace, and loving again. These songs are the result of Ute processing and healing her own experiences, and each one surprises us with her honesty and sense of humor in the face of life. This, her third CD Celebrate Life got released in December of 2006.
