A girl named Jillian Green thinks her life is completely normal. She goes to the public high school just down the street and has many friends. Despite the fact that her father died when she was very young, she had a close family; an older sister named Meagan, an older brother named Dylan, and a mom, Christine. She lives in a town called Suttersfield, where the past is a haunting one--host to several witch trials. In the beginning of the school year, which happens to be her senior year, a mysterious Cade Night appears. He's a senior also and there is something about him that makes Jill want to know more. Her eighteenth birthday approaches and her mom explains that at 11:23(P.M.) she will receive her gift. Jill is perplexed as to why she has to wait until this time, but it does not bother her until she gets to school and realizes that her locker has been vandalized. On it are the words "Beware of 11:23." Jill becomes something not of human and has no control over it--half werewolf and half angel. She then realizes that the future doesn't count unless you make the best out of it, even under such circumstances. With the help and guidance of her family, will she finally be able to accept what she has become...an animal?Author:
