

Forum Website To Generate Revenue From Advertising

DOWNLOAD HERE

IMPORTANT You have brought this website from a RESELLER and NOT the author of this script. Therefore, this reseller offers NO help and support for this product. This website offers a free forum service for members. Advertising is also included to generate revenue. Installation Step 1. Login to your websites control panel and create a database (do not forget to have a user, and grant the user permission to use the database). For information on how to create a database visit tutorialguy.com/generic Step 2. Open config.php and edit the variables for your information. Step 4. Upload all the files to your server and run yourdomain.com/install.php in the your browser. This will create the tables. Step 5. Connect to your file system either via FTP or your website control panel (file manager) and CHMOD (set permissions) the banners folder to 777 and config to 777. For information on how to set permissions visit tutorialguy.com/generic That concludes the installation of your website. The admin can be accessed at yourdomain.com/siteadmin with the username and password you specified in the config.php file.

Advertising - Any advertising orders you receive will require manually adding in the admin. Templates - Three templates can be modified to personalize your website: nav.php - this is the links that appear under the Partner Links on the left of each page AdvertiseTemplate.php - This is where you can add/change your advertising options. The PayPal and Stormpay email address are set in the config file. If you do not wish to change the current advertising option then you do need to edit this page. IndexTemplate.php - This is the text that appears at the top of the homepage of the site, use it to write a blurb about your sites or relay other information you want your visitor's to see.
