Most people just want to do something important, and they won't complain if it also puts their name in lights. Lian McAndrews wants more: to create a Perfect Human World that gets everybody involved. So you can imagine how well that sells in the rural Midwestern towns where he, his sidekick, and a dozen followers have been making three-week pilgrimages for the past seven years. And how the locals respond when they see the word "LOVE" tattooed on Lian's forehead! Is he nuts? Is it a con? Or is there something we all need to know in Lian's four-step, world-changing process? Come with us to Allerton, Iowa, for 21 typical days—playing tag with the cops, sidestepping preachers, facing a junior high school auditorium full of the curious, even watching the reluctant "laying on" of a curing hand. Typical except that Lian falls in love and a $2-million, "no strings" benefactor appears from nowhere... You decide. Come join this lanky redheaded cowboy, school teacher, and former Peace Corps volunteer whose singular conviction might just change your life and your world. This is Gordon Burgett's first novel. He has published 27 other books and 1,700+ freelance articles. Author: Burgett, Gordon , Lee Publisher:
