Insanely addictive folk-rock 10 MP3 Songs FOLK: Power-folk, ROCK: Folk Rock Details: "In the mirror", considered one of 2003s best albums by the Spanish media, was Ainara LeGardons solo debut, featuring Chris Eckman (The Walkabouts) on production duties and, among other guest musicians, Joe Skyward (Posies, Sunny Day Real Estate, The Walkabouts) on bass. Summer of 2004 saw the re-release of this record focused on the international market. In The Mirror is the reflection of the deepest feelings expressed with wisdom and feminine gentleness; a music travel from The Basque Country to Ljubljana with the clothes of Thalia Zedek or Carla Torgerson. Subtle, poetic, in love, bare, romantic, raw, honest, Ainara LeGardon brings us an autumn rain of beautiful songs. Songs that touch your soul and stay with you to keep you company La Gaceta de Salamanca (Spain) Insanely addictive Feedbackzine (Spain) Her talent is unquestionable LeGardon chooses intimacy, if not desolation, to tell stories tarnished by a cursed disenchantment, on some occasions only hinted at, on others more concrete.
