Review: "With sincerity and cheer, singer Andy Z narrates and plays tour guide through a tuneful let's-pretend world-wide where he's "buds" with dinosaurs, pirates and squirrels, a leprechaun makes an appearance and his 18-month-old nephew runs the island fire station. The tour winds up with a rock 'n roll, Mister Rogers-style "I Love You Because You're You" message and a "surprise" track with a winter holiday theme that serves as the CD's encore number." Lynne Heffley 2004 Parents' Prize More Description: Andy Z's new CD "Welcome to Andyland", is an amazing destination-based adventure with music and narration. "I have been a performing artist and singer/songwriter for 20 years, but I first realized my ability to connect with children through music when I began playing local farmer's markets in the San Francisco Bay area. I noticed that the kids were particularly drawn to me and my music. Some would even insist their parents stop and listen." "In the following weeks, I started incorporating children's songs into my sets, and the response from children and adults was very positive. Now, I almost exclusively perform for children both as a solo artist and with my group 'The Andyland Band'. " "This has been a tremendously rewarding experience for me and I intend to continue on the path of writing and playing for kids. Kids are open, honest and the best audience. And they enjoy silly stuff as much as I do!"
