Pure Americana -- soulful singing served up with tight harmonies and hot string band playing make the Border Radio sound. They're an original blend of roots country, bluegrass and western swing. 5 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Bluegrass, COUNTRY: Country Folk Details: Like the old-time border broadcasts, Border Radio is an eclectic mix of music straight from the roots of a purely American-born sound. They perform standard tunes from bluegrass, old-time country and swing, but their powerful original songs pay homage to those legacies as well. Kelly McCune's warm, exciting vocals ring authentic and true, but she brings a modern sensibility to her styling and songwriting. Mike Stromberg plays a soulful dobro and sings harmony vocals. Luke Halpin can move from hot club fiddle to the sweetest old-time mandolin playing with ease. And Robert Staron on upright bass makes this all-acoustic string band swing! Check out their full-length CD, Americana Brand.
