"Emmaline is a rare combination of sensuality and strength that I found infectious and I believe you will too." --- Steve Nathan, Getgigs November 2002 "Emmaline's voice is a gem, filled with unbridled soul. Most of the songs follow a smooth drum-n-bass type groove, using abstract hip-hop rhythms and beats---this is when she's at her best. "Evie Slow Down" is a great example with its catchy progressions and mysterious, sultry vocal delivery. It's a great mix, and the song just comes alive. Yet, the best song on the disc is by far "Coming Down", a track that lets Emmaline's vocal talents shine. It utilizes the trip-hop beat without being overbearing, which allows her to sing her heart out. The chorus is super catchy and downright infectious. I couldn't stop hitting the repeat button on this one, and it is honestly one of my favorite songs from the past year." --- Mish Mash Music, June 2002 "Emmaline's lyrics in general are fantastic. She's a great storyteller painting vivid images in the mind. This talent combined with her strong, gutsy voice and driving beats makes this one to watch." --- Collected Sounds, May - June 2002 "This singer/songwriter strikes deeper into the passion that is music than most artists do in an entire career. In Muchmore's case, it isn't a question of when she'll make it big; it's a question of why it hasn't happened yet." --- Northland Reader, October 2000
