Local Hamilton musician FRANK HUSKINS has recently completed his most recent project: a collection of 13 original compositions, on CD format. It is entitled, "NO PURCHASE NECESSARY." This project, completed slowly but surely over a period of three years. A bit about the artist... Frank is no stranger to the Hamilton Music scene. He has been performing in the Hamilton area since 1985. He began as a single folk act, and has played many venues, including Festival of Friends, Hamilton Place lounge, benefits, etc. He was joined by his wife Tracie in 1995, Eric Wills (lead guitar) in 1997, and has recently added a bass player and a drummer to capture the sound created in the studio. Released singles: "Dreams Are For Free/Northern Ontario"(45 rpm format) received limited airplay nationally. (The former was a tribute to Terry Fox.) (1986) "Country Christmas," performed by Carolyn Yager, received local airplay. (1995) In 1996, Frank released a collection of 8 original songs (in cassette format) entitled "Just Another Hundred Dollar Day." It received some airplay nationally, and got fair attention on various European stations. Frank's current release marks a major effort. It is best described as a mixture of blues, pop, folk and rock. A CD release party will take place on Saturday, March 27th, 8:00 p.m., at Hamilton Mountain Bowl, 1525 Stone Church Road East. Tickets are $10. each, which includes admission and a CD.
