Recently honored by the ASCAP Young Jazz Composer Awards for his work on this album, Cherner brings a fresh new sound to the long standing jazz piano trio tradition. 7 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Traditional Jazz Combo, JAZZ: World Fusion Details: The Jarrett Cherner Trio performs music rooted in the jazz piano tradition, blending contemporary influences with those of world music. Afro-Cuban rhythms mixed with jazz swing propel improvisations within a modern harmonic framework. With an original repertoire of compositions from pianist and composer Cherner, the trio has been attracting audiences consisting of both veteran jazz fans and those new to jazz. On their debut CD, Burgeoning, the trio takes the listener on a journey through a range of sonic moods, from the angular groove of Stand Your Own, through the raucous, bluesy shuffle Sucker Punch, to the introspective melody featured in Somebody Quietly. In performance the trio is equally dynamic, constantly searching for new places to take the music and always willing to take the risks that will lead the way. Though not their birthplace, all three musicians have emerged from the vibrant Boston jazz scene; Cherner and Roeder met while studying at the New England Conservatory, and Prez-Albela is a Berklee alumnus. From San Francisco, Jarrett Cherner earned degrees in both music and math while studying and working in Boston. His compositions are both melodic and logical and his playing evokes a Keith Jarrett like penchant for lyricism in addition to a rhythmic influence indicative of his studies with Danilo Prez. From Lima, Peru, bassist Jorge Roeder adds his warm tone and unshakable beat to the trio, rounding out the low end. Whether soloing, comping, or dialoging with the band, Roeder's lines are consistently swinging and freshly musical. Then there's drummer Jorge Prez-Albela, also from Lima. You never know when he'll slide off his drum set in favor of his cajon or to play an assortment of percussion instruments (take a listen to Shake The Cage). Equally at home swinging and playing Latin rhythms, Prez-Albela's rapid responsiveness combined with his rhythmic arsenal keep the trio on its toes. Members of the trio have toured both nationally and internationally, performing at venues such as: Jamboree, Barcelona; El Caf Central, Madrid; Sunside, Paris; Regattabar, Boston; Berklee Performance Center, Boston; and Ryles, Cambridge. They have also performed or recorded with Herbie Hancock, Roy Haynes, Maria Schneider, the Either/Orchestra, the Chicken Slacks, Amphis Baena, among others.
