The two met at Mannes College of Music in New York City while attending Graduate school. They studied under Frederic Hand and were coached by Michael Newman and Terry Champlin. Throughout that time they performed music ranging from the Renaissance to modern pieces by local artists. Both guitarists bring a unique personality to the stage; Bret comes from Central California. He studied with Terry Mills from the University of the Pacific and received his Bachelors of Music from Adam Holzman at the University of Texas. Giacomo was born in Florence (It.) and raised in the United States. He studied with Ricardo Cobo and Ronn Yedidia prior to college. He received his Bachelors from Mannes and went on to win several national guitar competitions. Having both recently graduated, the Duo has completed their first recording. It features works by Manuel deFalla, Isaac Albeniz, and Astor Piazzolla. Their goal is to extract the program from the concert hall and bring it to a broader audience in New Yorks popular music venues.
