Shimmering, driving, jangled up pure pop that's both an aching stare toward a lost yesterday, and a time machine leap into a colorful future. not for the hyper-trendies, and it aint for the rap and r&b set. powerpop always and forever. 15 MP3 Songs POP: Power Pop, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: Hot off the press, this album is the latest entry from Mark Roebuck, former lead songwriter of the 80s power pop band the Deal. Although Mark has a strong acoustic singer/songwriter presence on this CD, he is driven along by the chiming, grinding sound of Noonday Ruin- a gathering of his old Big Circle band mates Charlie Pastorfield, Tim Anderson, Rusty Speidel, Tony Fischer, and Jim Ralston. Also joining up on keyboards and vocals is Bruce Hornsbys Bobby Read who also recorded and co-produced the album with Mark. In 2003 NotLame Records, an internationally known power pop indie label, released an anthology of the Deals material, featuring many of Marks original compositions. It is available at CD Baby, as well as at notlame.com. In 2005 Mark Released Tribe of Heaven, Imagine We Were, a dark acoustic project begun shortly after the breakup of the Deal that included Dave Matthews. It is one of CD Babys top selling CDs of all time.
