Ambient experimental 10 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Ambient, AVANT GARDE: Experimental Show all album songs: Ambient Masonry Songs Details: Matt Linder has been making electronic music since the mid 1980's. Getting into midi and electronic sequencing from its inception, and building a home studio where he could write and record music at will. Over the years Matt has recorded hundreds of songs from rock, experimental, techno, or cinematic film scores. Recently Matt has been going through hours of tapes, midi files, and digital recordings to remix and remaster, or even re-record, these songs and release them on to CD. Matt currently lives in Los Angeles and works in visual effects as a 3D Lighter on motion picture films like "The Chronicles of Narnia", "Night at the Museum", and the upcoming "Incredible Hulk". Matt performs live, as often as vfx film deadlines will allow, in coffee houses and clubs throughout the Los Angeles area. Ambient Masonry is a collection of sonic experimentations, sampled sound effects, environmental sounds, intermixed with melodic touches from synths and ambient guitar.
