Contemporary classical guitar with folk, jazz and flamenco flavours. 17 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Contemporary, LATIN: Flamenco Details: Neil Lockett is a contemporary composer who writes for classical guitar and chamber ensembles. He also plays and sings in alternative rock group "TV for Dogs". Reviews: "Lockett's performance of these works is superb..... colourful and imaginative throughout" -Classical Guitar Magazine "a truly talented player" -Guitarist Magazine "Not only is Neil Lockett a first class guitarist, he is also a brilliant composer for the instrument. He uses the instrument in a highly imaginative way, his music is both lyrical and dynamically charged. Makes me think of an English Leo Brouwer." -Timothy Walker, Royal Academy of Music "Melodic throughout, Lockett's most recent interludes are subtly seductive and offer ambient nods toward the experimental... A welcome addition to my collection. "Make two Martinis, turn the lights down and slip this into your CD player before your date arrives" -Scott Noegel, Offline arts review magazine "Music that yields up it's magic, bit by bit" -Carey Blyton, Composer "Big, deep and meaningful with more than a dash of the very strange to it" -Melody Maker
