

Mp3 Paulina Zamora And John Milbauer, Pianos - Richter

6.2

DOWNLOAD HERE

During the recording of this CD in northern California, a 6.2 earthquake happened, resulting in the title, and an earth shaking 2-piano performance. 6 MP3 Songs CLASSICAL: Traditional, EASY LISTENING: Mood Music Details: BIOS John Milbauer has performed frequently across North America, Europe, and Asia, and his concerts have been broadcast on WQXR National Public Radio and French National television. After initial study at Harvard College, he earned degrees from Eastman School of Music, The Juilliard School, and Manhattan School of Music and a certificate from the Liszt Academy in Budapest, Hungary. He received a Harvard College Fulbright Grant to study in Hungary through the Hungarian Ministry of Culture and Education Bursary. He participated in the Ernen Musikdorf in Switzerland and has given concerts in Europe, North America and Asia. He is the recipient of the Laird Youth Leadership Foundation Award for Leadership in Art. and for Leadership in Art. While living in New York City, Milbauer gave solo recitals, accompanied other artists, taught at The Juilliard School, Manhattan School of Music and was part of the Columbia Artists tour with the New York Theatre Ballet. During his residency at the Banff Centre in Canada, in an effort to take classical works outside the boundaries of the music community, he organized a free, weekly musical series at a neighboring ski resort that gained in popularity and continued after he left Canada. In addition, he has volunteered as organist at Our Lady of Peace Church in Marshfield, at the Banff Presbyterian Church and at St. Alban's Episcopal Church in Arcata. Milbauer has been engaged in summer music programs for students, ages 12 to 18, and he teaches master classes for local teachers and their students.

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: