We gurarantee you will love this album.. Hard hitting bass, smooth catch lyrics, wi 18 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Hip Hop, GOSPEL: Contemporary Gospel Details: Born and raised in Canton, Ohio, Prodigal Son only had 4 choices to escape poverty. 1=Crime, 2=School, 3=Sports, 4=Music, Prodigal decided to take all 4 avenues. While in high school Prodigal formed an R&B group that opened for a host of artist such as Levert, Rude Boyz, Men at Large, The OJays and M.C. Hammer. At the height of Prodigals career he was sentenced to 1yr. in a juvenile corrections facility for a period of (1) year, and an adult prison for a period of (1) yr. where he had perfected his musical gift. Prodigal Son then moved to Columbus, Ohio to attend college and make a better living for himself. While attending Columbus State Community College Prodigal linked up with contemporary jazz band P. Rainey Coalition under Sony Music recordings, performing front line vocals for the band, and performing in various night clubs and major jazz venues. Opening for such acts as Pieces of a Dream, George Clinton, Mickey Howard, Spiral Jira and many more. In 1998 Prodigal performed a song entitled Guilty Eyes on the bands New Millennium/Sony recording release entitled Different Angles. In 1999 Prodigal Son moved to Ft. Lauderdale Florida to pursue his musical gift because he believed in BIGGER opportunities Since being in Florida Prodigal has opened for a host of artist including R. Kelly, Ex-Con, J-Shin, 3 SIX-MAFIA Field Mob, Busta Rhymes, Fat Joe, Sean Paul, Mystikal, Jagged Edge, Juvenile, the opening act for several BET comics, performed area night clubs and has won several talent events. In 2000, Kelly signed a one (1) album recording contract with a recording label out of Miami, Fl. In 2001 Kelly f.k.a (Q-Dizzo) released a Christmas song/video under the recording label that has soared to #1 in 5 states. September 7, 2002 Q-Dizzo) made his first national television appearance on Showtime In Harlem, in New York City, and made it to the 2nd round of MTVs making the band with P.Diddy. Amongst Prodigal's musical gifts he has been cast for 1 major film Bad Boyz 2. A Sinners prayer (HBO Special 2005) now available in FYE music stores. THE CHANGE Being healed from breast cancer with the help of no doctors, only God, Kelly turned into The Prodigal Son, giving his life/music to God. Now strictly working for God, no longer performing in clubs, Prodigal now performs/ministers regularly in churches, outreach programs, drug/prison institutions and the streets, Having shared the stage with great performers such as T-BONE, ANOINTED, NIKKI LEONTI, TRINI-TEE-57, GOSPEL GANGSTAS, LIL IROCC, PAPA SAN, DOTTIE PEOPLES, Bobby Jones (of the hit BET show Bobby Jones Gospel, and a host of other greats.
