Details: Like so many artists, Austin Riley began his career playing and singing at an early age. His earliest musical experiences began in church. As Austin grew older, the sounds of Country music captured his heart and soul. At the age of eighteen he began singing to tracks as a solo artist at VFW halls throughout Oklahoma and Kansas. As an adult, songwriting became a love that is proving to be an asset for this rising star on the country scene. Austin loves the power of a song and hopes to share his songs with the world. Austin Riley was born in Oklahoma, but is proud to call Nashville his home, where he relocated to pursue his career in music. His love for songwriting introduced him to several Nashville songwriters, and these introductions have resulted the great original music we're lovin' in A Thousand Miles Of Memories releases on OTB productions in 2008. "Austin Riley is one of those rare artists - and they don't come along very often. This is some of the best country music heard in a long time and Austin Riley knows how to sing country music as it should be sung. His rich vocals, though all his own, are reminiscent of George Strait, and the great instrumentation and Austin's delivery make every song on Austin's debut album a stand-alone hit. Among Austin's accomplishments: "A Thousand Miles of Memories"- Super Country Radio podcast; also on Arizona's Pure Country Radio. Currently Cashbox Magazine's 1 Country Indie pick, 1 Country pop, 1 Country rock, 5 Country on mp3.com.au, 6,7,8 on SongVault.fm with three different songs. Currently 24 on Independent Music Network charts.
