More heartfelt, thought provoking and upbeat songs that reflect Dan's folk, rock, doo-wop, and reggae musical roots--a little more country and a lot more prophetic than his debut album. 11 MP3 Songs in this album (45:04) ! Related styles: WORLD: Reggae, POP: Doo Wop People who are interested in Sting Paul Simon Mark Knopfler should consider this download. Details: Dan Reiser is Asheville, North Carolinas greatest liar. (This bio cant be trusted, but its the only bio the artist would approve.) His debut album, Fallen Angels, includes songs about buried treasure, Mayan rain gods, Van Gogh, aliens, and Africa...and two songs about love. This album, Final Days, is a little more country and a lot more apocalyptic. Yes, hes lied about them all. Songwriter Dan Reiser has no actual experience in any of these subjects except love, and his wife says he has no experience in that. Reiser thinks he probably is Ashevilles greatest thief also. My rhythms are stolen from world music, the harmonies are from the doo-wop era, and many of the melodies are reminiscent of 50s and 60s music, he claims. (He doesnt want you to know it, but he has been involved in Ashevilles music scene longer than most of that storied scenes scenesters.) Dan Reiser thinks you should buy these tunes, if you dont mind a little thieving and lying. Hed also like you to buy his sculpture at danreiserstudios.com. Im either a musician working as a sculptor, or a sculptor working as a musician, Reiser says. Apparently he is not only a thief and a liar, but a multitalented schizophrenic too. A Few of the Lies: I was living my life like I was fighting a war. Angel of New Orleans I did nothing and I did it well And then Id rest a spell. When God looks me over He'll see I ain't done much. All he'll see are scars and few tattoos. Scars and Tattoos There aint no moon tonight, Theres only satellites Shining on the world below Telling lies to the radios. Damn all the nation's pride And dman religion 'cause it just divides, The world is changing every day How come it's still the same. Cops in camouflage with Budweisers and a pack of dogs. One Country Once so strong, I can tell that our rhythms gone. And our lives are reduced To a yard sale on our front lawn. Building a Wall Everybodys looking for something not to say, Everyone is so afraid of what their words might betray, We think if we say nothing We just might be right. The water's cold and dark And your fears swim like sharks In the well deep inside Everyone Where tears come from. Where Tears Come From
