Folk with a rock to it. 16 MP3 Songs POP: Quirky, ROCK: Folk Rock Details: Jeffrey Sutton Frederick, always enjoyed a faithful following wherever he played. Jeffrey has left us, but his music lives on and his material is still covered by the Freak Mountain Ramblers, the legendary folk singer Michael Hurley, Bingo and Pants on Fire. Jeffrey is best known for his band Jeffrey Frederick the Clamtones. The folk classic "Have Moicy" a three-day collaboration between Jeffrey and his Clamtones, with Michael Hurley and Peter Stampfel's Unholy Modal Rounders was acclaimed by Robert Christeau, of the Village Voice, the best LP of 1976. Rolling Stone included "Have Moicy" in its top 30 albums of the 70's. Jeffrey Frederick the Clamtones released an album of Jeffrey's original tunes, "Spiders in the Moonlight" in 1976 on Rounder Record label. Jeffrey was once again featured on the "I Make A Wish for A Potato", The Holy Modal Rounders and Friends, was released in 2001, by Rounder Records. Jeffrey left behind more than a lot of great memories and outrageous stories of his antics. This CD showcases Jeffrey's post Clamtones Nevada band, The Jeffrey Frederick Band. It was recorded in the winter of 1991. Songs include several standards from the Clamtone days as well as some of Jeffrey's favorites such as "Mind Your Own Business" by Hank Williams and arranged by Jeffrey and his original all time classic "Let Me Down". If you enjoy a strong rich voice and lyrics that will delight the senses with humor This CD is for you.
