phobos.apple.com/WebObjects/MZStore.woa/wa/viewAlbum?playlistId=128886861 Not fluent in reading music or its theories, pianist-keyboardist-composer Joseph Ramos has the extraordinary gift of perfect pitch, "playing by ear" and instantly composing full-length pieces. He composes with no preparation or practice. It's truly amazing to see him in action: he sits, he plays, and you listen. And you listen in awe and absolute amazement. Each song is engaging, uniquely crafted and unique - it has its own special and distinct flavor. His ability to compose music has is non-stop, as the possibilities are absolutely endless. His talent was discovered at the age of three, and since then his gift of music has been shared with many - through performances at notable venues such as the Palace of Fine Arts Theater in San Francisco as well as his performances broadcast on various Northern California television stations. His instrumental music has been categorized as "New Age", however he prefers that his music be called "easy listening" or simply instrumental. His music invokes emotion and a sense of calm that is like no other. Fans have referred to his music has reminiscent of a state felt at a special time or moment in their lives. Joseph has released two albums, "It Was Only A Dream" back in 1998, and "Reflections" in 2005. Both albums are available for purchase with popular retailers such as amazon.com, bestbuy.com, towerrecordsas well as digital music stores such as Apple iTunes, Virgin Digital, America Online and Yahoo!.
