Details: MELVIN LEONARD FROM THE GHETTO TO GREATNESS MELVIN LEONARD. NEW ORLEANS. THE SOUND OF FUNK AND R B Melvin Leonard come from the colorful southern city of New Orleans, Louisiana. His grandfather, Walter Manaday played drums for Louis Armstrong, and his mother, Mary Sterling Leonard played honky-tonk blues piano and in church, along with having a superb velvet voice. Melvin grabbed a pair of drumsticks before he grabbed his first bottle and he has been pounding out rhythms for as long as he could remember. Singing at church and other events, at the tender age of 10, these talents began to develop Melvins childhood with music, song and appreciation for the unique southern sound named funk. His professional career started in the internationally acclaimed nightclubs of the New Orleans French Quarter. As a singer, songwriter and producer, Melvins style of singing is funky and he is likely to become one of the hottest stars of the R&B world. Melvin first new CD release was titled the Melvin Leonard: The Prince of the Blues in 1996. The songs on this CD are: You Wont Miss Your Water, Till Your Well Runs Dry You Up-Set Me Baby Drunk Woman Aint No Good For Me So Long My Baby Is Gone Nobody Wants You When Your down and Out Ive Been Ripped Off For My Money One Woman With Two Men Im A Fool For You Baby, But Mama Didnt Raise No Fool Im Your blues Man baby Dont Talk About My baby, Leave My Baby Alone. It got a lot of appreciation and took off like a rocket. Melvin is preparing to release his second CD, with a more R&B funk original style, titled: Melvin Leonard. The songs on this CD are: Slipping In The Mix Fire It Up Wave In The Water VooDoo Booty Shake Hello Yall Shake Your Booty Party This Is What Dreams Is All About Shes Sexy Your Got To Move Your Body. With much anticipation for more success than the first CD, Melvins second

CD will be in high demand for all music lovers. Both CDs were release on his own Spice Records Label that are colorful with the soulful sound of the Southern Funky South. Melvin always had his greatest moments on the stage. Thats what he lives for.
