Details: It is the electric fusion of three musical talents from various backgrounds that makes up the lush soundscapes of Sonicland Peace Makers. The scent of Postrock that Hiro (Vo/G/Programing) radiates, the atmosphere of club music that Nayuta (Keys/Programing) devotes himself to, and the influx of Hard Rock that tAk (Bass) brings, are all entwined together to create a truly unique sound which floats perfectly between digital and analog sonorous realm. It is a sound they call "ELECTRO RAVE ROCK." Track #2 "Lulu" features Latin vibe, and is often played to open SLPM's live performances with. Try track #5 "Calling" - the band's anthem. Influenced by music from India with strong percussive rhythm and programmed club beat. The song has been featured on radio and on TV, and everyone's favorite tune at live performance. That is, people dance hard loud, and lost themselves when this song is played. Track #7 "The Vibe" is another Tribal House tune. Enjoy the dynamics of changes in this song while maintaining tribal feel throughout. Quite danceable, indeed.
