Melodic, moody jazz 13 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Weird Jazz, CLASSICAL: Contemporary Details: Described by Cadence magazine as a session-long study in contemporary lyricism, this collection of melodic pieces forges a place beyond time and genre, where melancholy is met with hope. Arranged for two, three, and four instruments, the music features: Chris Cheek on tenor and soprano saxophones, Roberta Piket on piano, Rob Garcia on drums, and Stephan Crump on acoustic bass. In his debut recording as a leader, Memphis native Stephan Crump displays the maturity and depth one would expect from a highly in-demand bassist on the New York jazz scene. More than just a bassist and a leader, Crump as a composer reveals a rare earnestness and polish. These tone poems, at once moody and optimistic, speak directly with our emotions.
