SHORT BIOGRAPHY Singer Songwriter, Tony Graham, is a native Oregonian. Tony has been singing and writing songs for over 20 years. Tony has won numerous vocal competitions and has performed as a front man for several bands and now as a solo artist, he performs his original music throughout the Pacific Northwest. Graham's songwriting was influenced at an early age by the songwriting styles of Jim Croce, Cat Stevens, James Taylor and Kenny Loggins. With his unique style of songwriting and impeccable vocal range, Graham has the ability to hypnotically captivate his listeners from beginning to end. With his profound lyrical messages and vocal honesty, Graham's music takes his listeners from laughter to tears and back again. The CD "Kick The Can" is a must for any music lover. If there is one word that can be used to best describe this album, it would have to be the word...phenomenal! After you hear it, you will wonder why this guy doesn't have the world banging on his door for more. Anymore said here would be a waste of your time because this album speaks for itself. So take a listen, then you be the judge. While you take a listen, please read the wonderful reviews below and if you like what you are hearing, write a review for Tony's album yourself.
