BLUES: Funky Blues, ROCK: Jam-band

Details: From their humble beginnings in the coffee shops of Sacramento, the guys in 2Me are building a name for themselves as a group who can charm a candlelit audience just as easily as they can rock a bar full of weekend drinkers. On a late night in the fall of 2003, Christopher got his friend Reid drunk enough to share a cigarette and start a band with him. Two weeks later he introduced Reid to Nathan, and an hour later the three of them were taking the stage at a coffee shop for what would be the first 2Me show ever. Less than a month later, Conan, an old friend of Nathans, came to a show with his bass in hand and said he wanted to play with them. The band 2Me had officially arrived. Theyve since recorded two full length albums (5 brown 1 green, and Schizophrenic Love Songs), and entertained every kind of audience imaginable, from drunks at dive bars, to grandmothers and granddaughters dancing side by side in shopping malls. Having already logged more than 40,000 miles on their automobiles in California and Nevada alone, 2Me embarked on their first national tour in June 2006: 20 shows in 30 days from California to NYC and back. The dudes are planning a northwest mini-tour before heading back into the studio in the winter to record the third album. Christophers whispery voice has roused comparisons to James Taylor, Dave Matthews, and Jack Johnson, while the bands penchant for slide guitar, psychedelic jams, kazoo solos, and earthy backbeats have stirred up comparisons to The Grateful Dead, Phish, The Allman Brothers Band, and The String Cheese Incident. Christophers lyrics have a tendency to change on stage periodically, making the live show unique every time, but they always manage to conjure up thoughts of childhood innocence, daydreams, companionship, whiskey, Disney movies, pirate ships, alley cats, and unrequited love.
