Uplifting Irish fiddle music with worldbeat influences, fiddler Cady Finlayson is joined by instruments including banjo, concertina, percussion, guitar, harp and more. This is the latest CD (2004). 15 MP3 Songs WORLD: Celtic, FOLK: Traditional Folk Details: Cady Finlayson's fiddle music has been called "uplifting", "spirited", and "soulful". From her first fiddle show in the U.S. Virgin Islands to her Carnegie Hall appearance for the NYPD Memorial Concert, Cady has brought her spirited Irish fiddling to 25 states and 3 countries. Cady Finlayson spent two summers at the World Music Centre in Limerick Ireland, and her Harp and Shamrock CD features her favorite tunes from that experience, as well as some original melodies and a variety of acoustic instruments. She is joined by some of Nashville's finest musicians including: Elkin Brown-guitar, Jim Roberts-percussion, Rex McGee-banjo, John Mock-mandolin,concertina, tin whistle,bodhran, Cynthia Wyatt-harp, Shane Theriot-electric guitar/bass, David DiGuiseppe-accordion. Cady Finlayson currently fronts her own Irish band based in New York City, which specializes in Irish music with a worldbeat groove. Her projects include multi-genre fiddle show Fiddlers on the Loose (with Elektra Kurtis and Da Phatfunk Clique), the soundtrack to an Irish aerobics DVD, and collaborations with artists in other genres including African percussion. In addition to her own band, Cady Finlayson has performed as the fiddle soloist for The Police Pipes and Drums of Bergen County. Her Shines like Silver CD is also available on CDbaby.
