Enviro- cowboy lounge music 14 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, COUNTRY: Progressive Country

Details: Delivering more than a half ton of fun and with more than 250 years of cumulative life experience,

Children of Celebrities are proud to announce the release of their second full length album Were Not Bitter. Touching on themes that range from hockey to impotence to murder, they inhabit that nebulous middle ground between country, bluegrass and whatever it is that Tom Waits does. (Monday Magazine).

Children of Celebrities released their debut album Middle Age Wasteland in the winter of 2004/05.

Wasteland featured twelve original songs and became one of Victorias most highly regarded and popular albums of 2005. The band invaded the radio airwaves in Victoria on CFUV, Village 900 and CBC, CKDU in Halifax, CFBX in Kamloops, CFMH in Saint John, CJSR in Edmonton, CJSF in Vancouver, CHLY in Nanaimo among many others (as faraway as roots radio programs in Europe!) an on-air television appearance as video artist of the week on A- Channel as well as being featured on Shaw cables The Daily in Victoria. Tolan McNeil, a favourite son of Victoria, was nominated for a 2005 Vancouver Island

Music Award for his work as producer on the album. In the annual Monday Magazine Readers Poll in 2005 the Children took home two M Awards - Favourite Local CD and Favourite Group. In keeping with their newfound notoriety the Children kept their momentum rolling by contributing a track Retro Help - to Self Righteous RecordsCavalcade of the Scars compilation. Alongside acts such as David P. Smith, Carolyn Mark and Meatdraw among others, Cavalcade was the 2nd most played album of 2006 at Victorias campus station CFUV as well as placement on the top 50 of the Canada-wide college charts.

Often seen busking on the streets, performing at coffee shops and bars and playing at summer festivals and markets, Victorias kings of enviro-cowboy lounge music have returned with their most ambitious project yet. Were Not Bitter is sure to appeal to musical aficionados and oddballs alike. With a collection of twelve new original songs and a couple of their favourite non-original tunes - Rain Dogs by Tom Waits and Smoke, Smoke, Smoke that Cigarette by Merle Travis and Tex Williams, Were Not Bitter promises to continue where Middle Aged Wasteland left off. Theyre not quite sure exactly where that is, but the Children are ready for the ride.
