street real life music coming straight out of h-town true story with a message 19 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Style, URBAN/R&B: R&B Rap mix Details: Col Blac got started in the rap game to tell a true tale of life in the streets of H-Town from drug dealing to being conscience about life and what life really means to him. "I started to wake up to my community and to my people. This album came straight from the heart. A true life tale about my life's struggle. When you buy this album it will change your life forever," says Col Blac. Col Blac is a man who cares about his people and the community. He wants to make a change in society. After enduring so much hate and discouragement in his life he wanted to make a difference especially after Hurricane Katrina. "I started a collaboration with artists from Louisiana and Houston to come together and curb the violence between the students in the local high schools," states Col Blac. Listening to this album you will get a feel of what it's like to hustle in the streets of Houston and what it is like to want to make a change and put yourself into a position to take you from death to life. "If I can sell death...I can sell life... For music is life."-Col Blac
