Production Details: Daryl Irvine's 'crazy6' release features the sort of stirring contemporary rock that discerning fans will take to their hearts. Ranging from the brooding, distorted guitars of '40,000 Years' to the yearning, acoustic 'Stagger', Irvine's powerful vocals are a constant force throughout this record and a keen ear for production adds the finish to this debut 'crazy6' album. Crazy6 is the working title for Daryl Irvine's solo writing but these tracks are the result of working with many different talented musicians. The essence of crazy6 is to serve the song, not the musicians performing it. To that end the people involved in the tracks are constantly evolving and include some of of the best performers from all over the world.

"Great vocals" Computer Music Magazine "There is a global market for this music" Phil Legg - Producer for Terence Trent D'arby Beverley Knight "The material does have commercial potential. Retro Sounding - classic song structure ...huge theatrical choruses" Matt Ward - Head of music publishing, Kickin Music.
