Acoustic Americana--songs by David Williams, featuring the fabulous vocals of Darcy Perez--old timey, folk, rockabilly, blues. "David Williams works magic . . . he describes the commonplace with uncommon grace." NEWSWEEK 18 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, COUNTRY: Country Folk Details: JOPLIN, MO a new acoustic CD of songs by David Williams in the Americana vein: folk, old-timey, gospel, rockabilly, country. These songs (which trace some of the same characters and territory of David's soon to be released book- INDIAN BINGO - award winning short stories through Ghost Road Press)--tell the stories of David's original homeland of Joplin, MO, where his family has lived for generations. These songs are performed on guitar, four five-string banjo, fiddle, mandolin, steel guitar, standup-up bass, and clarinet, and many feature the phenomenal singer, DARCY PEREZ (who has been described as a cross between Gillian Welch and Natalie Merchant with a touch of Nora Jones). Other world class musicians who appear on the album are Duane Webster, Julia Hays, Bill Pontarelli, Jax Delaguerre.
